

HOME COMING WEEK ACTIVITIES WILL COMMENCE TODAY

Elaborate Plans Made for Events Leading Up to Indiana Football Game.

Dance, entertainment will be provided for the visitors when the "Middie of Entertainment," made up of vaudeville and athletic stunts is put on at 8 o'clock. Pres. Mattie Walsh of the university will officially welcome the homecomers at this time and Coach Knute Rockne will tell the crowd what he expects of his team in the big clash.

The attractions of the program include two orchestras, the University and Big Five, and William Rogers of the Chicago Grand Opera association, a favorite with local audiences.

A solemn requiem high mass in the Church of the Sacred Heart will be read at 8:30 o'clock Saturday morning in memory of the deceased members of the Monogram club.

The fatted calf, having roasted all day in the pole, will be served at 10 o'clock Saturday morning and his colleagues will be killed at 10 o'clock Saturday morning and the homecoming barbecue and picnic will be on. Accommodations are being made to serve 4,000 people at tables which will be arranged in the gymnasium. There will be no charge for the eats, although contribution boxes will be available to aid in defraying expenses, which are estimated at $600.

The biggest event of all is slated at 2 o'clock in the afternoon when Coach Rockne's eleven of 1922 will take on the Indiana university squad members of the western conference. Nothing that has ever been staged at Notre Dame will compare with this game.

Approximately 15,000 persons will be grouped around the gridiron, and the sons of Notre Dame, the wearers of the N. D. monogram will occupy seats of honor on the field, along the sidelines of the gridiron.

The Irish will undoubtedly enter the contest as favorites, but from the fight the Indiana eleven has been showing it looks like a tough battle.

Between the halves of the game there will be a short memorial service for George Gipp and other deceased heroes of the Blue and Gold gridiron. Old timers whose fame is a by-word to the older fans will be introduced and a series of novelty stunts for the amusement of the crowd will complete the time between the periods.

Following the game the Monogram club will hold its annual banquet in the junior refectory and the glory of the Irish through the history of her sports will be told by a half dozen old grads.

Student homecoming dances will mark the close of the day of merriment. The dances will be conducted in the Oliver hotel, the Tribune building and the Elks club. Orchestras will be switched around during the evening, thus adding to the pleasure of the dance.

Beginning Friday morning, members of the Boosters' club and South Bend alumni will meet every noon at 12 o'clock to add visitors in their enjoyment of the program. Information booths will be established at the Oliver and LaSalle hotels and at the entrance to the campus. The address of any student or faculty member will be obtained at these booths and information of any of the details will be furnished by the men in charge.

spoken of and that the visit of Mrs. Carleton at 1 o'clock in the morning was supposed to be a friendly call.

The funeral of Mrs. Carleton will be held in Helena, probably Monday.

Courier Holland announced that an inquest would be called.

While Dr. Carleton was a best known in northern Montana, his activities had taken him to other parts of the state and he was widely known in Butte and Helena.

of the act and its whole purpose are revealed now that its financial sponsors are publicly recognized.

Albert J. Baybridge, former senator from Indiana, and Mr. Robinson's opponent, was denounced for his endorsement of the tariff law, which was described by Mr. Cox as a "typical measure."

"It would be no violation of common sense to say that former Sen. Baybridge never held the faith and does not have the trust of those consistent progressive leaders and followers of former Pres. Roosevelt."

Bonds of $500 each were furnished to appear in city court.

The DeMay place was raided by the same detail June 2, when a quantity of liquor was found near the place, but Mrs. DeMay was found not guilty and since that time has avoided arrest.

sh territories and other humanitarian considerations, including those of the great nations and educational institutions. Apart from those and regarded as of equal importance to American welfare in the near east, was the prohibition of opening the Panama Canal and European straits.

U. S. to Watch Closely

These considerations, the ambassadors were informed, warranted this country in observing closely the proceedings at Lausanne.

Mr. Hughes listened attentively to the reading and received a copy of the invitation. He informed his callers then of the steps he had taken to acquaint their respective home governments with the attitude of the United States respecting the settlement of the near eastern questions at Lausanne. Mr. Hughes was understood to have promised the three diplomats, however, that he would respond later in writing to the invitations they had brought.

PROSECUTOR NOW BUSY CHECKING UP MANY ANGLES

Henry Stevens Believed Practically Out of Case by Alibi.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Oct. 28.—(By L. N. S.)—Deputy Atty.-Gen. Wilbur M. Mott, generalissimo in charge of the investigation of the mysterious murder of Rev. Dr. Edward W. Hall, rector of the Protestant Episcopal church of St. John the Evangelist, and the beautiful choir singer, Mrs. James Mills, today began to sort and assemble the mass of testimony for presentation to the grand jury, probably on Monday.

In addition to the evidence collected by Mott himself, a vast amount of testimony has been turned over to him by the prosecuting attorneys and county detectives of Somerset and Middlesex counties and by the state police.

The deputy attorney-general said he would be at his office in Newark all day and in the meantime the investigation, however practically finished, will be continued by the county detectives and county detectives of Somerset and Middlesex counties and by the state police.

Mr. Lloyd-George expressed delight that Premier Bonar-Law had promised to examine the proposals formulated by the late government to help industry. "I am so glad," said the former premier, "that he has not joined in the silly cry against conferences. He has had too much experience of what can be achieved by these to imagine it is possible to conduct the business of Europe, or of Europe and America without the principal men who have the affairs of those continents in charge meeting face to face to discuss them."

Mr. Lloyd-George defended the Geneva conference, saying that although it did not achieve all hoped for, it had produced a better atmosphere and caused Rumania, Poland, Finland and Latvia to sign a peace pact.

ORDER NEW RATE
INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 28.—(By A. P.)—An order reducing by 10 per cent the short haul rates on coal was being drafted today by the public service commission and will become effective Dec. 1. The reduction will apply on hauls less than thirty miles and will affect principally Brazil and Terre Haute and a few other fields.

REPORTS THAT Mrs. Gibson had gone to Pennsylvania, giving the impression that she had "fled" proved untrue. Mrs. Gibson was at her home today on her farm, not far from the scene of the murders.

Further details by Mrs. Gibson, who undoubtedly will prove the "star" witness before the grand jury which is expected to start Monday, and further investigation at the home of Henry Stevens, brother of Mrs. Hall at Lafayette, N. J., apparently put Stevens out of the case entirely. There are from eight to 10 persons at Lafayette who are prepared to swear that Stevens was on a fishing expedition on the night of the murder.

VICTIM IS HIT BY COAL;
ASKS $15,000 DAMAGES

VINCENNES, Oct. 28.—Several months ago Roy Torsing, an employee at the coal station here of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad, threw a 40-pound lump of coal out of a car.

The coal struck August Brandenburg, foreman of the station, in the back.

Brandenburg has sued the railroad company for $15,000 alleging that Torsing was careless and negligent.

SPUD SURPLUS RESULTS
IN MANY HUSKING BEES

SEVASTOPOL, Oct. 28.—Potato bees took the place of husking bees in northern Indiana.

The crop of spuds was so large in northern Indiana this year that many farmers appealed to townspeople to aid in harvesting the crop.

They offered each tenth bushel to the diggers as their pay.

Two persons working together found it possible to dig 26 to 29 bushels a day.

Hoosier Farmers Suffer
From Lack of Freight

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 28.—Rural districts in Indiana are confronted with a car shortage that is seriously hampering the movement of farm products as the result of an interstate commerce commission order diverting cars from the midwest to the far west. It was said today at the public service commission. The Indiana commission has appealed to the interstate commerce commission for relief. It is understood that the Illinois commerce commission has also taken steps to meet similar conditions prevailing in the state.

Oscar Ratts, a member of the Indiana commission, said today that reports from several communities indicate that elevators are filled to capacity and that no more grain can be handled until cars are available for shipment.

HIGH EDITORS MEET
FRANKLIN, Ind., Oct. 28.—The establishment of the Indiana High School Press association, to furnish news to high school publications was discussed at the annual meeting of editors of high school papers here today. More than 250 delegates representing 50 school papers were present.

LYOYD-GEORGE SEES DANGER IN DIVIDED RANKS

Essence of Argument Is on Policy of Swapping Horses in Mid Stream.

"This is not the time when we also doing our best, all of us in order to extricate the nation out of its difficulties and preventing its getting into pitfalls should quarrel among ourselves. Why? I read the explanation given by Mr. Bonar-Law. It is not a rational one. He said it was better to split the nation than split the party. That is a bad reason to give. Can't a nation afford to be partisan? The world is in such trouble, it is in such a condition that you cannot afford to indulge in party bickering until the nation is on the firm rock again."

"I deeply deplore the decision and my friends and I can do no more part to avert the worst evil of the bad blunder, and that is what we propose to do."

Partisan Victory Not End.
Mr. Lloyd-George pointed out that a partisan victory in this election would not mean the end of the struggle.

"The socialist party is a new party and a great alternative," he said. "It has fought one election, it is going to fight a second, and it will fight a third. I do trust that which will be done in this election that will make it difficult, and certainly nothing that will make it impossible for men of like mind who believe in keeping the country steady from pulling together in the joint and preventing it from capsizing."

Referring to the composition of the new government, Mr. Lloyd-George said the situation of the country required direction of the ablest men available and that some of these men as the result of the action of the conservatives, were not available.

Mr. Lloyd-George expressed delight that Premier Bonar-Law had promised to examine the proposals formulated by the late government to help industry. Auto Containing Nine Tips, Call Ambulance But It Is Not Needed

ELKHART, Ind., Oct. 28.—Persons who saw a light touring car turn a somersault here today and then watched its occupants, a man and wife and their seven children, crawling from the wreckage, sent a hurried call for an ambulance. The ambulance was sent back unused, however, none of the nine in the car being hurt. The family was from Minnesota and none could speak English.

JUMPS OVER FALLS SO
WIFE MAY BE FREED

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Oct. 28.—A man's coat and hat and a letter indicating he had jumped over the falls after the filing of a divorce suit by his wife in Lancaster, Pa., was found this morning near the American falls.

A letter was also found with the clothing. It read in part as follows: "Dearest Helen: May God forgive me for what I am doing, but there is no other way. Your happiness requires that you be free and this is the only way to make that possible. Please try to understand. It all seems like a dream, but it is only too real. Jack"

The letter is addressed to Mrs. Helen Leaman, No. 125 S. Queen st., Lancaster, Pa.

EXHUME BODY TO FIND
$27,906 CERTIFICATE

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 28.—In the belief that a certificate of deposit for $27,906 is sewed up in the lining of a coat in which Patrick Haley was buried on July 2, the body will be disinterred in Calvary cemetery.

Haley told his wife before he died that "he was buried pressed for money." By accident, an inquiry of a real estate dealer who manages some property for Haley, it was found that he had a small fortune on deposit in a bank here. The deposit certificate cannot be found and the bank refuses to release the money to the wife as protection against loss in case the certificate was transferred to some one else. The grave is the only place not searched where the certificate could possibly be hidden.

WITNESS TO TAKE STAND.
Wellsburg, W. Va., Oct. 28.—The state's star witness, William White, himself under indictment for murder, will be placed on the stand Monday in court here when the trial of John Kaminski, 19, is resumed.

White, it is said, will turn state's evidence in the Cliftonville mine battle trials and upon his story Pross Wilkins largely bases his hope for the conviction of Kaminski.
